Anty Drudge and Anti-matrimony Don't Agree.

Miss Bacheller-"No woman ought to get married and be the slave of man, washing his clothes and wearing out her youth and beauty in household drudgery." Anty Drudge-"Nonsense! Bosh! Married women don't need to be slaves. If they use Fels-Naptha soap and cool water they'll make all the washing-white and colored goods, flannels and woolens-easy, quick and economical. I know!"

You know a woman who makes her housekeeping money go a great deal further than yours; who is always well dressed; who keeps her house in perfect order and still she has plenty of time to go visiting.

You say she is very clever. And you wonder how she does it.

She has simply solved the problem of living. She knows what is true and what is false-economy. She realizes that to save time and effort is quite as important as to

In the weekly wash, for instance instead of sticking to the old fashioned boilthe-clothes-and-rub-the-dirt-out idea, she does hers the Fels-Naptha way.

In cool or lukewarm water and without the tedious rubbing and scrubbing.

She gets her wash done in half the time and with one-tenth the trouble.

She saves her hands; her energy, and it means a lot to the life of the clothes.

Woolens washed in the Fels-Naptha way don't shrink or harden, but are left soft and as new.

It's fine for household cleaning, too. Follow the directions on the red and green wrapper.
